For The Student: How To Use

Using this Bible Study

Take time to pray for the Holy Spirit's insight and believe God to use this Bible study to reveal Himself to you. Allow God to minister His Word to you and be committed to applying what He has taught you to in your life.

Bible Study Format

BIBLE STUDY ON JOSEPH (For Older Children & Youth) is a Bible study material designed to allow you to answer most of the questions in this workbook based on the Bible passages given.

The Lessons

Each lesson is based on an aspect of Joseph's life except for the first lesson. The first lesson is the introductory lesson on the importance of studying God's Word for knowledge and life application. The rest of the lessons are divided into two sections—a: Joseph's life and b: its life application. The sections a and b of each lesson may be studied together or separately.

Memory Verses

There are the only two memory verses for the entire BIBLE STUDY ON JOSEPH (For Older Children & Youth). Do your best to memorise them.

Main Bible Text

Usually most of the Scriptures for the lesson study on Joseph's life are from the main Bible text but not limited to it.

Topic

The topic for each lesson indicates a theme from God's Word that is focused on in Joseph's life and its life application to you. The questions in the lesson are tailored toward this theme.

Aim

The aim for each section summarizes what is to be studied in Joseph's life or its application to your life based on the topic.

Review

The review helps to refresh your memory on the last lesson.

Comments

These are background information and explanations provided where applicable to help you know more, understand the questions asked, and guide the answers expected.

Those comments that give away the answers to the questions before them have been moved to the end of the lesson. When you have finished answering those questions, take the time to read the comments before continuing with the rest of the study.

Definitions

Where necessary, certain terms are defined to help you understand the context those terms are used in the lesson.

Questions (and Answers)

Make sure to read every Scripture and use it to answer the corresponding question.

The intro questions in the life application sections enable you to ponder on or share your personal experiences. From the second lesson, the last questions in both sections a and b encourage you to articulate what you have learned from the lessons. As much as possible tailor your contributions/answers to the aim of the section.

Prayer

Take time to pray in rounding up the lesson. The prayers should not be limited to the prayer points given.

Assignment

The assignment for each lesson is the main Bible text to read for the next lesson.

Ground Rules in a Class or Group Setting

Below are suggested ground rules to adhere to:

- Be orderly in your contributions. Receive the leader's permission before you ask or answer questions, read the Scripture or give any contribution.
- Do not dominate the discussion. Allow others to participate.
- Do not make fun of any contribution. Respect each other's feelings.
- Feel free to ask questions. Remember, there are no dumb questions.
- Keep all personal experiences shared confidential. Do not look down on the sharer.
